

7 Year Olds' Dreams for 7 Generations is a planetary Initiative on the One Home Journey: 7 Years for 7 Generations, to showcase the future desired by children from diverse contexts, across all countries, and continents.

The children's voices and visions are a profound inspiration to reimagine our shared future and a poignant call to action to transform our divided world and endangered planet into an inclusive and regenerative Home for all children on Earth.

Can we imagine what 7 year old children experience today, across all the diverse cultures on our home planet?

Can we picture the future 7 year old children desire today, in every country on Earth?

Can we visualise 7 year old children's dreams for the world they wish for everyone, in 7 generations?

What are we willing to do to fulfill our children's dreams, and create the future every child on Earth deserves?

In this planetary initiative, we will witness the dreams of children in every country on earth, across diverse cultures, and disparate circumstances – whether living in poverty or plenty, droughts or floods, war or peace.

333 million children in the world are living in extreme poverty. (UNICEF)

468 million children are affected by war and conflict. (Save the Children & PRIO)

1 billion children are at "extremely high risk" from the impacts of climate change.

(UN Children's Climate Risk Index)

Our children's dreams are the ultimate call to action for all of us to do everything we can to transform our divided world and endangered planet into an inclusive and peaceful HOME that fulfills the dreams of all children, in every country on Earth – starting now!

7 Year Olds' Dreams - in Schools that Nurture Dreams:

As we travel country to country and home to home on the One Home Journey of 7 Years for 7 Generations, our local partners in each country will identify schools that nurture their students' purpose passion and potential, and encourage their students to cultivate their visions and dreams and become caring and conscious Earth citizens. In each country we will visit such schools and engage creatively with school children, especially 7-year-olds. We will share with them the unfolding story of our collective future-building expedition to every country on Earth - the One Home Journey of 7 years for 7 Generations.

7-year-old children will be invited to voice their visions for the future and to express them through drawings and paintings. Children will have utmost liberty to express themselves freely and creatively.

Reimagining and Reshaping our Future - through the Visions and Voices of 7 Years olds! Annual Digital and Physical Exhibition and Art Book:

Every year as the One Home Journey travels to 28-30 countries across all world regions, we shall harvest a cornucopia of messages and images by 7 year old children spanning every part of the world: from Africa, Asia and Oceania, the Americas, the Arab World and Europe. These will be curated in an online and physical art book, and also be shared in a digital exhibition and shared in onsite exhibitions in different locations.

At this time of unprecedented turmoil and transition, as we witness the words and images, and hear the voices of these 7 year old children living in such diverse cultures and geographies, and experiencing such different circumstances and contexts, we shall begin to see the world anew through their eyes.

7 year old children around the world will give us the impetus we now need to fulfil their dreams and to reimagine our world and re-shape our future
